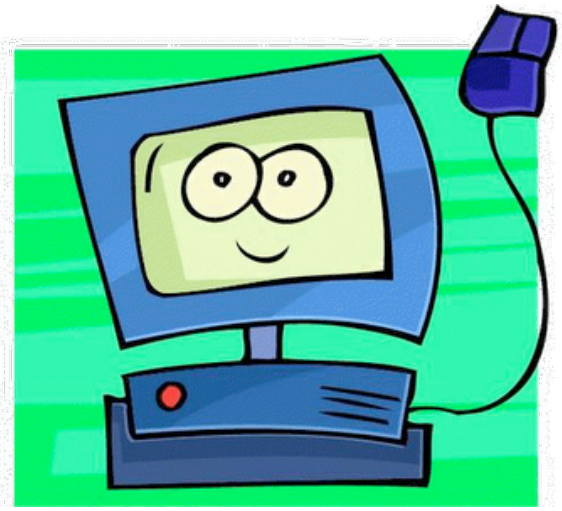
Components of a Blog

Header – Name of blog and brief description

Post – An entry, also called an article, about the selected subject. When you are the 'blogger of the day' you are responsible for creating a three-part post!

Post Title – The "headline" for your post. Make it catchy and draw attention to your post!

Comments – The place where readers comment on a blog / post You need to ensure that you comment in a respectful manner!


Link – Highlighted words and phrases that take the reader to other Web sites