Blogging contract

I _____ will follow the following rules of blog etiquette:

No cursing. No slang. No acronyms.

No name calling. No put downs. No unconstructive negative comments about others and their work.

Write in complete sentences. Use proper capitalization and punctuation.

Spell correctly.

Do not write in ALL CAPS. It is considered shouting.

Give praise when due.

Be respectful of my fellow students and their writing

Argue facts, not personalities.

Post appropriate photos and videos.

Student Signature: _____

Witness (Parent / Guardian) Signature: _____

Infractions of these rules will lead to the following consequences in order of severity and number of offenses:

1. Letter of apology to those offended by the infraction, warning by teacher, and editing or deletion of offending post/comment.
2. Letter of apology to those offended by the infraction, temporary loss of blogging privileges (to be determined by teacher and administration), editing or deletion of offending post/comment.
3. Letter of apology to those offended by the infraction permanent loss of blogging privileges, editing or deletion of offending post/comment.

Other consequences could be imposed by the school administration depending on the nature of the offense.

Created by N. Keyworth ©